In the ceiling of the Sistine chapel there is the familiar picture of the creation of Adam, and we tend to focus on the Creator in the cloud, stretching out his finger towards Adam. But look closely at the cloud and you will see that it is shaped like the human brain. The Creator enthroned in the human mind? What was Michelangelo saying about the creation of Adam? Was this the tradition he received, or was it an inspiration? And at the side of the Creator, in the very centre of the brain, there is a dark haired female figure: Wisdom, beside the Creator as Adam is brought to life. Because we see only what we look for in that picture, we miss Wisdom, both who she is and where she is; and what is true of this picture is also true of the ancient texts.

Also added to this is, “If you reproduce or re-purpose, be sure to credit this blog and link back to the post”, so I take it my use of the beautiful stones for a rainbow is ok. The light blue stone has a pink recolouring to make it violet/purple-ish for the rainbow.
